

PLAYER'S CODE OF CONDUCT

Players of teams should endeavour to follow these rules whilst taking part in training sessions, matches and other group activities. It is understood that there will be consequences for those who behave in an unacceptable manner, which could include temporary or even permanent bans from playing.

Players participating in rounders should

- Show a friendly and welcoming attitude and be respectful toward all other participants and officials
- Respect the decisions made by the umpire at all times
- Act in a way that is safe for yourself and others around you, follow any rules as directed by your coach
- Always respect the equipment that you use and use it in a safe and controlled manner
- Never use rude or abusive language or show abusive or aggressive behaviour
- Never abuse any other individuals in any way and do not make any comments concerning an individual's race, gender, religion, disability, sexual orientation, social background and/or culture
- Report any bullying or unacceptable behaviour to the League Welfare Officer
- Smoking, drinking or drug use is not allowed
- Ensure that you keep up to date with the rules
- Show team spirit
- Play fair and follow the rules
- Take responsibility for your own actions
- Always have FUN

Team members have the right to

- Enjoy rounders without the fear of being discriminated against or mistreated
- Enjoy rounders without undue pressure
- Be included and regarded as equals
- Seek advice and speak to the Committee or League Welfare officer if they feel that they have a problem of any nature.

This code is in place to ensure the safety of both the individual and anyone they come in to contact with. If at any time you have any concerns regarding the safety of any individual you should contact the Committee.

Any breaches of this code of conduct will be dealt with immediately by the Committee/umpire in a way they feel they see fit; this could include temporary bans. If there are persisted concerns or breaches it may result in a team or team member being asked to leave the League permanently.
